

Who are Veterans In Communities

Veterans in Communities (VIC) is an holistic and diverse outreach programme designed, developed, and delivered by veterans for veterans.

VIC supports ex-service personnel and their families with their transition from their service careers to civilian life.

VIC encourages and supports its members to work towards their aspirations and goals.

VIC was established to build on a community based veterans outreach project that would work alongside the Armed Forces Community Covenants.

Veterans supporting veterans

Some of our ex-service personnel and their families can find leaving the armed forces challenging. VIC is here to support them into settling back into civilian life, by working with communities for the benefit of the community

If you or someone you know are experiencing any difficulties or issues related to their service career . VIC is here to help

VIC supports ex-service personnel irrespective of how long they served, with whom or where.

VIC include those who also served in the other uniformed services; e.g. the emergency services and the prison service

VIC also support serving personnel and their families with the challenges of service life.
